CONFERENCE ABOUT THE INSANE ASYLUM. There was a conference of the State Lunacy Commission and the Commissioners of Charitles and Correction yesterday for the purpose of securing an interpretation of the regulation recently made by the State Commission in regard to the appointment and discharge of employes in the Insane Asylum. It was agreed that the Commissloners of Charities and Correction should promulgate written orders to the effect that the general medical superintendent should have full authority over the subordinates employed in and about the county asylums, except over those about whom the two bodies disputed. It was also settled that the superintendent should have the right to call for materials and supplies at pleasure, and that such repairs and changes as be deems necessary should be made at once.

JERSEY CITY.

BALLOT-BOX STUFFERS GO TO PRISON. Sherid McPhillips has kept the convicted ballot-box stuffers of Jersey City in the county fall so long that people began to wonder whether they would ever be taken to Trenton. Yesterday he settled the question by taking them to their destination. Every precaution was used to keep the transfer tion. Every precaution was used to keep the transfer secret, and in a great measure the effort was suc-cessful. 5ir. McPhillips tried to get the men away before Jersey City was awake, and he had three coaches ready at 7 a. m. But there was a hitch somewhere, and the conches were ordered to the rear doors of the fail. It was said afterward that Mr. Wills, who defended George Heller, would apply for a writ of error and wanted the sheriff to walt until his client's fate was decided. For some on McPhillips only waited until 8:45 a. m. Then Sheriff McPhillips, seven constables, and ten conviets marched out. The three coaches would not hold them all, and a fourth one was sent for. The prisoners were Lawrence Cortigan, George Heller, William Sweetingham, Michael Cassidy, John Far-rant, James, Scandon, Thomas, Cassidy, John Farrant, James scanlon, Thomas Nelson, Charles Carr, Richard d'Huybetter, and Michael Hughes.

The coaches drove hurricaly to the Pennsylvania Station, arriving there in time to eatch the 9:10

Station, arriving there in time to catch the 9:10 train for Trenton. Each man was sentenced to ifteen ment's with hard labor.

While George Heller was going to Trenton his application for a writ of error was being heard by Judge hippineout. The writ was granted, but the court said it could not act as a stay, because the prisoner had deprived himself of that right by p'cading guilty. William E. Reese, who was tried and convicted, was released on a writ of error several days ago, and Theodore schultz, who got the same right after conviction, is still in the county fail, because he can find no one to go on his bond.

MAYOR WANSER'S VETOES SUSTAINED.

The Jersey City Board of Finance yesterday dismissed four clerks from Tax Collector O'Nelli's office because there are no funds to pay their salaries for the month of November, the appropriation on that account being about exhausted. The dismissed clerks nre H. Halsey, Stephen Egan, Frederick J. Mersheim and George Bellamy. At the same time the board reduced the salaries of C. S. Westervelt and Frank P. Van Sann for the same reason. Mayor Wanser's vetoes of the June payrolls were sustained, the men whose wages are affected not having been lawfully appointed. Mayor Wanser sent in two new vetoes yesterday. They forhade the payment of the August salaries of oliver C. Stringliam and Peter Cassily, ballot-box stuffers, who served their time at Snake Hill, they being among the first lot to plend guilty, and who got off with six months in the pentientiary.

NEWARK.

THE FIFTY FIVE HOUR LAW AGAIN. Argument was heard before Judge Kirkpatrick in the Court of Common Pleas yesterday on an appeal taken by ex-Judge Stevens, on behalf of his clients, the Atha Tool Company and Henry F. Pfell, clothing manufacturer, against a decision of Judge Truesdell, to the First District Court some time ago, as regards the fifty-five hour law. Mr. Stevens contended that the act of the Legislature was arbitrary and unconstitutional and submitted several authorities in apport of his argument. Joseph A. Beecher, counsel for State has argument. Joseph A. Reecher, counset for State Inspector of Laber Lawrence T. Fell, argued that if the Legislature could regulate the hours of the wages worker at all, it could limit it to fifty-five hours. He asked the court to decide whether the Legislature had power or not. Judge Kirkpatrick said that several important questions had been raised which would require consideration, and that he would give his decision in a few days.

POSTPONED MILETING OF CATHOLIC BISHOPS.

The meeting of the Catholic Archbishops of the United States, which was to be held in this city on October 19, has been postponed until November 16. This action is caused by President Harrison appointing October 21 as the date of the civic celebration in honor of the 400th anniversary of Columbus's dis covery of America. As it will be necessary for the Archbishops to be in their diocesan cities on that date it was thought advisable to postpone the meeting. It has been erroneously stated that this will be the first meeting of the Archbishops since the third plenary council in Baltimore. The fact is they hold annual meetings. Last year it took place in St. Louis, Mo., during the celebration of the golden jubilee of Arch-bishop Kenrick, who will be as far as is known, the only absentee from this year's conference.

TROUBLES OF BUSINESS MEN.

George Drake Smith, dealer in lace curtains and pholstery fabrics at No. 330 Broadway, made an individual assignment yesterday to John G. Hyatt, giving preferences for $10,190, as follows: W. T. mith & Son, $4,300; Bromley Manufacturing Company, $2,000; Hyndman & Moore, $1,700; W. Rogers & Co., $1,250, all of Philadelphia; D. V. Smith, $940. Mr. Smith had no rating at Bradstreet's. He started in business in this city in 1882 in the firm of Walter Scott & Co., who dissolved two years later. In 1886 he started the George Drake Smith Company, of which he was president, but withdrew from that concern in November, 1888. A few weeks ago the firm of George Drake Smith, Griffith & Co. was formed, embracing the business of Mr. Smith and that of G. S. Griffith, jr., & Co., commission dealers in car-

Mr. Griffith sald yesterday that the new firm was no affected at all by Mr. Smith's individual assign-Mr. Smith said his assignment was brought about by giving accommodation paper to the Frank Wilkinson Manufacturing Company of Connecticut for $10,000. He thought there were enough assets to pay his creditors in full and leave a surplus. He thought the liabilities were about $50,000.

FLAMES IN THE CENTRE OF A BLOCK.

THE PIREMEN HAD DIFFICULTY IN WORKING-THE DAMAGE $80,000.

Fierce flames were discovered in the middle of the block bounded by Thirty-sixth and Thirty-seventh sts. and Second and Third aves, early yesterday morning. For an hour they threatened the de-struction of many buildings in the block. Four alarms were rung, calling all the available fire efigine in a large district of the city. The fire was put out after it had destroyed one large factory, partly wrecked two others, and damaged several other build-lings less seriously. The losses amounted to $80,-

George Meyer's five-story carriage factory was tr the middle of the block, the entrance to it being an niley at No. 225 East Thirty sixth-st. The flame started there in some way not known, probably on the nated. Close to the factory was the tenement-ise in the rear of the dwellings, at Nos. 221 and 223 East Thirty-sixth-st. D. L. Cook, an inmate of the tenement-house, saw a glare at his window at 5 a.m., and he looked out. Flames were issuing from the lower windows of the carriage factory. Cook's outery soon aroused the five families in the house, and they escaped to the street without serious They were taken into the front dwelling The alarm soon spread to the three houses, Nos 229, 231 and 233 Fast Thirty-sixth-st., occupied by the Sisters of Charity, and known as St. Gabriel Academy, an Institution connected with St. Gabriel's Awakened by cries from the street, th Church. sisters and their pupils hastily dressed themselve and left the houses until the danger was past. The firemen who responded to a first alarm saw flames shooting from windows at each story of the factory and rising above the roof. As the factory was surrounded by other buildings, the firemen had difficulty in getting water on the flames. The flames ex-tended to the top stories of the two furniture factories Nos. 224 and 226 East Thirty-seventh-st., occupied by Charles Fels and F. Vogel & Co. Each factor, was six stories high and filled with inflammable materials. Adjoining Feis's factory on the west sid was the factory of John J. Radley & Co., from workers, and the fire soon spread to the roof of that building. The rear tenement-house and the dwelling and academy houses in Thirty-sixth-st. had taken fire also, but the firemen were able to protect them from serious injury.

Meyer's factory was wrecked so completely that only the walls remained, and they were in a shaky condition. The factory had been on fire twice becondition. The factory had been on her twice before in recent years, it was said. Meyer's loss was said to be $50,000, partly covered by fifsumance. The other losses by the fire were estimated as follows: John J. Radley & Co., $2,000, insured; Charles Fels, $15,000, insurance not known; F. Vogel & Co., $10,000, no insurance; houses in Thirty-sixth-st., $5,000, insured.

IS THE BUILDING UNSAFE?

BENDING POSTS AND PALLING PLASTER ALARM THE OCCUPANTS OF NOS. 18 AND 20 ASTOR PLACE.

The Funk & Wagnalls Company, publishers, occupying Nos. 18 and 20 Astor Place, yesterday received a communication from their employes, over 100 in number, protesting against being kept at work any longer in the building, which, they declared. was unsafe, owing to the heavy machinery used on the floors above. The building, which is stories high, is built of brick and iron, and has a frontage of about 130 feet in Astor Place and 100 feet in Lafayette Place. The seventh floor is occupled by J. J. Little & Co. as a composing and ste type room, the fifth and sixth floors are taken up by bookbindery of the same firm, while the third and fourth floors are used as press rooms. On the second floor are the offices of the printing firm, and a composing room belonging to the Funk & Wag nalls Company, while the ground floor is occup by the Funk & Wagnalls Company, Taintor Brothers & Co. and James Patt & Co., publishers; the hatter, and Frederick Koehler, deale in boots and shoes. The building is owned by Or lando B. Potter, and was built in 1876.

It was said vesterday by B. J. Cuddiny, manage for the Funk & Wagnalls Company, that notice had been sent to the Superintendent of Buildings that the employes of the company deemed themselves in danger, as the posts which were used to support the cross beams in their store had begun to bend under the weight and vibration of the machinery overhead. An inspector called, who made a report the building was in an unsafe condition. Mr. Potter immediately put a force of men at work to strengther the supports on the basement and ground floors, but the first attempt was a failure. Again the Depart ment was requested to look into the matter, and a second inspection was made. After this despection Mr. Cuddiby says, he, in company with another elerl in the store, called upon Mr. Brady, the Superintendent of Buildings, who told them that he considered the building in danger of collapse, and would send notice to the Police Board to have the premises vacated. This notice was not sent, it is said, because under the law the owner of the building had a stated time in which to begin repairs in case of danger, or to take measures for insuring its safety.

or to take measures for lisuring its safety.

Mr. Potter at present has a force of men at work shoring up the weak spots in the Lafayette Place end of the building, which appears to be the most dangerous place. The employees of the Funk & Wagnalis Company, however, are multing preparations to leave the building, and quarters are already secured in the new Clinton Hall Building for their use. Representatives of J. J. Little & Co. say that their end of the building is safe enough, and while admitting that there is a heavy weight on the doors occupied by their firm, are not inclined to talk about the possibility of danger to the other teamnts.

The Rev. Mr. Prolix—How did you like my discourse last Sunday, Mr. Fogg?
Fogg-To tell you the truth, I was not altogether pleased with your premises, but I was delighted beyond measure at your conclusion.—(Poston Transcript.
